Internally contents are a little shaken but generally clean. There is a loose Bartholomew's map of the islands - which has had some archive tape repair. Scarce 1st edition in original decorative cloth binding, which is worn to spine ends, joints and corners. The original advert for the work is pasted onto the front endpaper. There is some splitting at the endpaper joints. Contents are complete with light toning. There is a note from the author's sister to the title page dated 1866. An unusual copy because of the enclosed ephemera which include a series of photographs circa 1940's of the interior and inscriptions. As these have suffered some wear since, the photographs provide additional detail that can not be viewed now. Fair. Hardcover. (3474) £80.00

Vol I with one map; some pencil annotation and occasional attempt to delete text. Vol II with one map and similar annotation and effort to delete.
