Anne Pratt. The Ferns of Great Britain and their allies the Club-Mosses, Pepperworts and Horsetails. London: The Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, 1855. 1st Edition. A good copy with 41 colour printed plates of ferns. Anne Pratt was one of the few women authors who were able to publish under their own name. She illustrated and wrote a number of works on plants, and also birds. Her work was considered of lesser merit than that of her male counterparts, however she was extremely popular as a writer and introduced many to the pleasures of plant hunting and identification. This copy is undated but probably 1855 - there is a signature showing the book was purchased in 1857. The binding looks like it has been chewed by someone's hound and it is also showing a lot of cloth wear to the spine. The contents, however, are extremely clean with each plate tissue-guarded. One owner was clearly a fern enthusiast because there are a number of scholarly annotations and a few pressed ferns had to be removed from the book. Good. Decorative cloth . (732) £50.00

Charles Hamilton-Smith . The Naturalist's Library. Vol XV Mammalia. Introduction to Mammalia. London : Chatto & Windus , 1870's. Reprint . A fair later reprint of a volume from the Naturalist's Library, edited by Sir William Jardine. The Library, which consisted of a series of volumes on insects, fish, birds and mammals, was first published by Lizars from 1833-1843. The text and illustrations were of extremely high quality and it was much reprinted. The illustrations in the Chatto edition are still hand coloured but some of the attention to details and quality from the original publication has gone. The binding is worn, particularly at the spine and edges, and is slightly shaken. Contents with black and white frontispiece, vignette title and 31 hand coloured plates in fair to good condition with some light spotting at times. Fair. Quarter buckram with cloth boards. G Butler, Henry O Forbes, G V Aplin, H A Macpherson, John Cordeaux, W B Tegetmeier, Murray A Mathew, Henry H Slater British Birds with their Nests and Eggs. London: Brumby & Clarke, Limited , 1896-9. 1st Edition. Authoritative work in 6 volumes with 24 colour plates of birds' eggs and 318 plain plates of birds by F W Frohawk. The quality of the plain plates particularly is superb. In the original binding with green buckram spine and corners and cloth boards. Gilt titles to front boards and spine. Page edges untrimmed. Vol I, 3 colour and 56 plain plates - 208pp; Vol II, 4 colour and 51 plain plates - 192 pp; Vol III, 6 colour and 45 plain plates - 175 pp; Vol IV, 2 colour and 55 plain plates - 219 pp; Vol V, 3 colour and 62 plain plates - 178 pp; Vol VI, 6 colour and 49 plain plates - 252 pp - includes index to the egg plates. All the bindings are generally clean but with pulling to top and bottom of spines and wear and bumping to corners and edges. Internally the contents are clean - both text and plates. The egg plates are tissue-guarded. The page edges are untrimmed and tend to have browning and an occasional small paper tear. Vol II has a repaired tear to the edge of the flap. One plate in Vol IV has a long repaired tear to the inner margin not affecting the image. Very occasional marking - a good set overall.

H Eliot Howard. The British Warblers. A History with problems of their lives. London : R H Porter, 1907-14. 1st Edition. Illustrated by Henrik Gronwold. 2 volumes in pigskin library bindings without titles. Both with water damage and staining, Vol I being the worst affected. Originally issued in parts this set is not properly paginated, with some page numbers added in in pencil. On collation it has 32 colour plates and 58 black and white plates and 12 coloured maps, but it is not clear that it is complete. It is a scarce work which, in very good condition, sells for circa £800. This set is priced for condition. The contents of Vol I have some damp staining - affecting text and 7 colour, and 21 black and white plates. Vol II is better - plates do not have tissue guards but are clean and in good condition. 2 plates are misnumbered, the plate which should be at p 112 is at 114, and the plate for 104 is at 90. Poor. Full leather. (1176)£160.00

Sir William Jardine . The Birds of Great Britain and Ireland. Vol I: Birds of Prey; The Naturalist's Library Ornithology. London : W H Allen and Co, circa 1885. 5th edition . A later reprint of the Birds of Prey volume from the Naturalist's Library. The book was originally published by W H Lizars and was one of a series published between 1834 and 1843. The engraved plates were extremely high quality and were hand coloured with great accuracy. The plates have been reused in this edition but by the 1880's the volumes were cheaper and there was much less attention to detail. There were 4 volumes covering British birds of which this is the first. It is complete in itself and includes: frontispiece portrait; vignette title; plain title; contents; memoir and text with 34 plates. The binding is somewhat worn and shaken. There is a prize bookplate of St Silas Men's Night School from 1887 to the front endpaper. Contents shaken - generally clean but with some spotting (foxing and occasional ink spots) and the odd mark. Signature to rear endpaper. Fair. Decorative cloth . (720) £35.00

Sir William Jardine . The Birds of Great Britain and Ireland. Vol II: Incessores; The Naturalist's Library. Ornithology. London: W H Allen and Co, circa 1885. 5th edition . Vol II of the Birds of Great Britain covering Incessores and complete in itself. The book was originally published by W H Lizars and was one of a series published between 1834 and 1843. The engraved plates were extremely high quality and were hand coloured with great accuracy. The plates have been reused in this edition but by the 1880's the volumes were cheaper and there was much less attention to detail. This volume has: frontispiece; hand coloured vignette title; letterpress title; contents; Memoir and text with 30 hand coloured plates. 409pp. Contents are complete and clean with the occasional mark. Plate 1 has crease to the corner. Some text pages have been poorly opened. Good. Decorative cloth . (721) £35.00

Sir William Jardine . The Birds of Great Britain and Ireland. Vol III Rasores and Grallatores; The Naturalist's Library. Ornithology. London : W H Allen and Co, circa 1885. 5th edition . The 3rd volume in the Naturalist's Library series covering British Birds, complete in itself. The book was originally published by W H Lizars and was one of a series published between 1834 and 1843. The engraved plates were extremely high quality and were hand coloured with great accuracy. The plates have been reused in this edition but by the 1880's the volumes were cheaper and there was much less attention to detail. This volume has a worn binding with some marking to boards. Contents: frontispiece; hand coloured vignette title; title; contents; memoir; text with 34 hand coloured plates. The number of plates is correct but they are bound out of order. Contents generally clean apart from the final pages, but very shaken with some loose stitching and gathers. Fair. Decorative cloth . (722) £35.00

Sir William Jardine . The Birds of Great Britain and Ireland. Vol IV Natatores; The Naturalist's Library. Ornithology. London: W H Allen and Co, circa 1885. 5th edition . The 4th volume in the Naturalist's Library series covering British Birds, complete in itself. The book was originally published by W H Lizars and was one of a series published between 1834 and 1843. This was the final volume in the series and the first edition was issued with a set of replacement title pages for all the previous volumes. The engraved plates were extremely high quality and were hand coloured with great accuracy. The plates have been reused in this edition but by the 1880's the volumes were cheaper and there was much less attention to detail. This volume has a worn binding with some marking to boards. Contents: frontispiece; vignette title; title; contents; memoir; text 313pp with 29 of 31 hand coloured plates - bound out of order. Plates and text reasonably clean but very shaken with the stitching visible at a number of points. Fair. Decorative cloth . (723) £30.00

Sir William Jardine . The Natural History of the Birds of Great Britain and Ireland Part IV Natatores; The Naturalist's Library Ornithology Vol XXVII. Edinburgh: W H Lizars, 1843. 1st Edition. First edition copy in a variant of the publisher's usual cloth binding. Contents: frontispiece; vignette title; 2 letterpress titles; advert; contents; memoir; chronological table of Naturalist's Library memoirs; text 313pp; directions to the binding (which refers to new title pages sometimes bound in with this volume as it was the last to be issued in the series); 31 hand coloured plates at the rear. The binding is sunned and lightly scuffed with some paler patches to boards. Contents in very good clean condition: some pages unopened but pp 31, 61 and 76 poorly opened; some splitting at the rear endpaper joint. Good +. Cloth. (617) £75.00

Sir William Jardine . The Naturalist's Library Vol XVI Mammalia. Lions, Tigers etc; The Natural History of the Felinae. London : Chatto & Windus , 1870's. A good later reprint of a volume from the Naturalist's Library, edited by Sir William Jardine. The Library, which consisted of a series of volumes on insects, fish, birds and mammals, was first published by Lizars from 1833-1843. The text and illustrations were of extremely high quality and it was much reprinted. The illustrations in the Chatto edition are still hand coloured but some of the attention to details and quality from the original publication has gone. This volume is in a fair binding - with pulling and fraying to the top and bottom of the spine and general wear. Contents, including black and white frontispiece, hand coloured vignette title and 36 colour plates in good + condition. 276pp. The odd slight edge tear to margins. Good. Quarter buckram with cloth boards. (172) £40.00

Thomas Bewick . A History of British Birds Vols I & II; Vol I: The History and Description of Land Birds. Vol II: The History and Description of Water Birds. Newcastle : T Bewick , 1821. A complete copy of the 1821 edition, including supplements with numerous woodcuts engraved by Thomas Bewick. In poor condition requiring restitching, rebinding and some repair. Both volumes have detached pages at the beginning and the pages have become dog-eared and edge-nibbled. Vol I is the worst of the two, with repaired margin/gutter tears at pp 43,45 and 58. There is some soot marking circa p 90 and 180. The supplement has some spotting and is loose and becoming dog-eared at the end. The index to the supplement has a repaired tear. Vol II is better in that the stitching is firmer and therefore the pages are in better condition. First 3 pages of the introduction detached, and a couple of loose sections elsewhere. An important work on ornithology and worth repair. Poor. Half leather with marbled boards. (163) £50.00

Thomas Pennant . British Zoology. Vols I & II (of 4): Quadrupeds and Birds. London: Wilkie and Robinson et al, 1812. New Edition. Volumes I & II of the 4 volume New Edition. Spines with small raised bands, gilt compartments and title labels; boards with blind stamped decoration, gilt ruled lines and gilt inner dentelles. Page edges and endpapers marbled. Both volumes have decorative engraved titles to each section - Vol I covering quadrupeds and land birds; Vol II covering water birds. Vol I with 65 plates plus 2 decorative titles; Vol II with 48 plates. Text pages with offsetting from the plates and a lot of browning/spotting. Plates generally clean. Original page markers present in both volumes. Bindings in very good condition with light wear to corners. Good +. Full calf. (2879)

Thomas Pennant . Introduction to Arctic Zoology (2 of 3 volumes). [Introduction volume written for 2nd edition, plus Vol I. Vol II lacking]. London: Robert Faulder , 1792. 2nd edition . A fair set of the first 2 volumes from the 2nd edition of Arctic Zoology. This includes the Orkney and Shetland sections which are part of the introductory volume. In original half morocco bindings with the stamp of the Royal College of Surgeons of England to the spines, and repeated on the title pages. The bindings are sound but the leather is very scuffed and rubbed. The buckram cloth is also scuffed with a little staining. Both volumes have an old library label on the front boards. Internally the contents are complete apart from a dedication in the introduction, but the large folding map has been bound into the wrong volume (the tie for it can still be seen in the introductory volume). The paper is quite toned, particularly at the top margin where is there is marking from being in a sooty atmosphere. Contents: Introductory volume - frontispiece; title; advert; plate list; text pp i - cccxxiv with plates I - VI; exports lists 2 pp; Index 6pp. Vol I - title with moose vignette; folding map; text in sections covering Quadrupeds and Birds with half titles pp 1-376 with plates VII - XIII. The Orkney and Shetland sections draws on work by the Rev George Low. Although Pennant does not give credit for Low's work in the advertisement section - where he thanks those who contributed - he does in the Plate list as follows: 'For the drawings from which these Antiquities were engraven, I am indebted to the Reverend Mr Low, Minister of Birsay in Orkney, who, at my request, made the voyage of the Orkney and Schetland Isles in 1778. He hath prepared his journal for the press; it is to be hoped, that the liberality of the public will enable him to give this addition to my labors, which will complete the account of the northern part of the British dominions'. Fair. Half morocco. (4114)

W Swaysland, R Kearton . Familiar Wild Birds; Series I, II, III & IV. London, Paris, New York: Cassell & Company Limited , 1883. 1st Edition. A good to very good copy of the full work by W Swaysland, with sections on eggs in each volume written by R Kearton. In typical late Victorian decorative cloth binding with bevelled edges to boards and use of gilt decoration. Each book has 40 colour printed plates, mostly by Thorburn, of which 4 are of eggs. There is a sad note in the final volume saying that the final volume contains more examples of birds which are 'familiar' no longer. The writer hoped that perhaps the publicity generated through the books might lead to better conservation of our native birds. The bindings all have wear to corners and edges and tops and bottoms of spines. They are all very clean. Internally contents are complete and the plates all have tissue guards. There is some foxing (light brown spotting), more prevalent in the first 2 volumes and, generally most noticeable in the margins - particularly the top margin. The spotting is quite common in books of this date and with this paper. Tops of books are more affected generally through the impact of coal or wood fires and the resulting soot in the atmosphere. All volumes have a publisher's catalogue at the rear and the final volume contains the index. The second volume has a small repaired edge tear to the plate of the Swift. Good. Original cloth.
