Jakob Jakobsen . An Etymological Dictionary of the Norn Language in Shetland Parts 1 & 2. Lerwick : Shetland Folk Society , 1985. 2nd edition . ISBN: 0948276002. The first edition of this work had become so scarce and expensive by 1985 that the Shetland Folk Society - with grant support - republished it at a price that islanders could afford. Now the first edition has virtually disappeared and this edition is very scarce and rising in price all the time. This copy has come from 2 sources (we kept Vol I until we could find a Vol 2). Vol I is extremely bright and clean with slight pulling to spine ends and turning to top corners. There are some old cuttings loose at the front concerning Norn. Contents with frontispiece portrait of Jakobsen are extremely clean and appear unread. Vol 2 has had a harder time of it. The binding has a stain at the top of the front board, which has a very turned top corner. the spine is faded and with a water mark. There is pulling to spine ends. The back board has a nasty bump to the top edge close to the spine, and some light marking. Both boards have a slight warp. Internally it is very clean. Slight odour. In summary Vol I is 'near fine', and Vol 2 is 'good' Hardcover. (5627) £200.00

P G Wodehouse . Meet Mr Mulliner. London: Herbert Jenkins, 1956. 1st Autograph Edition . From the Recreation Library at the Saxa Vord RAF Radar Station on Unst. The No 91 Signals Unit became officially based there in 1957 and the site was closed in April 2006, although funding has been agreed to reopen it as a remote un-manned site. Unst is the most northerly of the Shetland Islands - and exposed to some ferocious weather - so the recreation library would have been an important and well-used resource. As an ex-library copy there are Saxa Vord library markings on the front endpapers and the dust wrapper is price-clipped and has been preserved in laminated wrap. Repair to half title page. Good in good dust-jacket. Hardcover. (4434) £10.00

Very good +. Half leather . (225) £125.00

Samuel Hibbert . A Description of the Shetland Islands, comprising an account of their scenery, antiquities, and superstitions. Lerwick : T & J Manson , 1891. 2nd edition . A very good clean copy of the 2nd edition. Relatively few copies of the 1822 1st edition were produced. It had a number of illustrations and a folding map and was expensive. T & J Manson reprinted it in 1891 because of local demand, but took the decision not to include most of the illustrations and the folding map because the costs would have been prohibitive. This edition is not particularly common either. The binding is half calf with cobbled cloth boards. The spine has title label and gilt compartments. There is light wear to edges, corners and spine joints. There is an inscription to the top of the initial blank. Contents are complete and in near fine condition with the occasional pencil annotation. Very good. Half calf . (4107) £120.00

Thomas Pennant . Introduction to Arctic Zoology (2 of 3 volumes). [Introduction volume written for 2nd edition, plus Vol I. Vol II lacking]. London: Robert Faulder , 1792. 2nd edition . A fair set of the first 2 volumes from the 2nd edition of Arctic Zoology. This includes the Orkney and Shetland sections which are part of the introductory volume. In original half morocco bindings with the stamp of the Royal College of Surgeons of England to the spines, and repeated on the title pages. The bindings are sound but the leather is very scuffed and rubbed. The buckram cloth is also scuffed with a little staining. Both volumes have an old library label on the front boards. Internally the contents are complete apart from a dedication in the introduction, but the large folding map has been bound into the wrong volume (the tie for it can still be seen in the introductory volume). The paper is quite toned, particularly at the top margin where is there is marking from being in a sooty atmosphere. Contents: Introductory volume - frontispiece; title; advert; plate list; text pp i - cccxxxiv with plates I - VI; exports lists 2 pp; Index 6pp. Vol I - title with moose vignette; folding map; text in sections covering Quadrupeds and Birds with half titles pp 1-376 with plates VII - XIII. The Orkney and Shetland sections draws on work by the Rev George Low. Although Pennant does not give credit for Low's work in the advertisement section - where he thanks those who contributed - he does in the Plate list as follows: 'For the drawings from which these Antiquities were engraven, I am indebted to the Reverend Mr Low, Minister of Birsay in Orkney, who, at my request, made the voyage of the Orkney and Schetland Isles in 1778. He hath prepared his journal for the press; it is to be hoped, that the liberality of the public will enable him to give this addition to my labors, which will complete the account of the northern part of the British dominions'. Fair. Half morocco. (4114) £350.00

Thos. Edmondston. An Etymological Glossary of the Shetland & Orkney Dialect with some derivations of names of places in Shetland. Edinburgh: Adam and Charles Black, 1866. 1st Edition. A very poor copy with internal damp staining, toning and marking and the occasional edge tear. Binding was contemporary half leather with marbled boards, but the spine is detached at the front and the front board is adrift. The internal marking and staining makes it unrealistic to repair. Reading copy only. Poor. Half leather . (4734) £30.00

Thos. Edmondston. An Etymological Glossary of the Shetland & Orkney Dialect with some derivations of names of places in Shetland. London and Berlin: Asher & co, 1866. 1st Edition. An unusual 1st edition copy - probably destined for export rather than local consumption - being published in parallel to the Adam and Charles Black edition. Identical contents. In contemporary half leather with cobbled cloth boards. Spine with title and author labels and small raised bands. A lot of rubbing, scuffing and surface loss to spine ends, spine joints and corners, but the binding is sound and clean. Marbled endpapers with ornate bookplate of Sebastiani Evans (1830-1909 - English journalist, political activist (Conservative), author, translator, and artist - friend of Edward Burne-Jones). Old ownership signature (not Sebastian Evans) to initial blank. Contents complete and very clean with light toning to page edges. Good. Half leather . (5624) £80.00
